

NXT Up! – NAR NXT Call for Proposals: Inside Scoop

Frequently Asked Questions:

- Where can I submit a proposal?

You can find additional information and the link to submit a proposal here:

<https://narnxt.realtor/call-for-proposals/>

- Is there a recommended length for the video?

All submissions must include a video link, or the submission will not be considered. This video does not need to be from a live course and can be a self-recording to demonstrate your skills as a speaker. The content of the video does not have to be on the topic you are submitting, but it does help. It is recommended to edit the clip of your best content within a 1–2-minute timeframe.

- What are the submission categories or topic areas?

Brokerage Management, Business Diversification, Business Technology & Innovation, Commercial Real Estate, Diversity & Inclusion, Global, Green & Sustainability, Legal Issues & Risk Management, Legislative & Regulatory Issues, Personal & Professional Development, Property Management, Sales & Marketing, Social Media & Video Strategies, Team Talk

- What format are the conference sessions?

There are multiple format options available to select for your proposal: case study, group discussion, lecture, panel discussion, roundtable, workshop, field experience, facilitated networking.

- Where can I find some information about the Field Experiences?

Due to the inclement weather, we were unable to complete the field experiences in 2022 in Orlando. However, you can find examples of what was scheduled as well as some additional information about each here: <https://narnxt.realtor/field-experiences/>

- What are some examples of things you are looking for 2023?

Submissions directly related to handling unique aspects of current market conditions, sessions that address the NAR Strategic Framework for 2023-2025, managing teams effectively, new technology, real estate investing, managing your business at an agent and broker level, etc., thought leadership and trends

- What are the biggest mistakes you see speakers make when submitting their proposals?

Not including a video with the submission and making sure the video is a short clip of your best content.

Not being clear enough with what you want to accomplish with your content – including title and key takeaways.

- Is being an NAR member a requirement to speak at the conference?

NAR Membership is not a requirement to be a speaker. Non-industry and non-member speakers are welcome to submit a proposal.

Frequently Asked Questions (cont.):

- Is there a limit on how many proposals I can submit?

You can submit up to six (6) different proposals.

- What is the timeline for the selection process?

The deadline to submit a proposal is Monday, January 9th. After that date, the review process will take place over the next 6-8 weeks. Acceptances will be sent out sometime in mid-to late-May.

- Do speakers receive compensation or an honorarium?

All speakers receive a complimentary Premier Access pass to the 2023 NAR NXT, The REALTOR® Experience and a free recording of their education session after the event. Speakers with products or services to sell may receive a discount booth at the NAR NXT Expo. No additional compensation is provided.

If you are interested in sponsoring or securing a booth, please reach out to nar@heiexpo.com.

- How do I submit a proposal for another NAR event outside of the conference?

NAR NXT is the only meeting that officially accepts call for proposals, besides AE Institute. However, in the call for proposals application there is a list of other events hosted by NAR that can be checked if you are interested in presenting there. If applicable, your proposal will be shared accordingly.

- What do I do if I still have questions?

Please feel free to email NARConfSpeak@nar.realtor with any additional questions.
